

Reading Response 2

Focus: Main Characters

The main character is the person whom most of the story is about.

Some stories have more than one main character.

Assignment

*Draw a picture of the main character or characters in your book and write a paragraph describing them. Use details from the story and your own ideas to describe them.

Example of a complete response:

Title: The Ballad of Mulan

Author: Retold by Song Nan Zhang

Date: September 2, 2008

The main character in The Ballad of Mulan is Mulan. Mulan is a brave woman who disguises herself to take her father's place in the Emperor's Army. I think Mulan loves her family very much because after she returned from the war, the emperor offered to give her anything she wanted and she only chose to go home to her family.