

Reading Response 5

Focus: Text to Text Connection

A text to text connection is when a book you are reading reminds you of another book you have read.

Assignment

*In a 3-5 sentence paragraph, write about a text to text connection you made while reading your book.

Example of a complete response:

Title: The Keeping Quilt

Author: Patricia Polacco

Date: September 2, 2008

The Keeping Quilt makes me think of the book The Talking Cloth by Rhonda Mitchell because both stories have a blanket that tells stories. The blanket in The Keeping Quilt tells stories about family members and the blanket in The Talking Cloth tells the story of an Ashanti princess. The blankets were both very special to the families in the story.
