Dear Mrs. Snodgrass,

I am reading the book Harry Potter and the Sorcerers Stone by J.K. Rowling. If I were to pick one character in the book that I would like to spend the day with, I would choose Harry. I think Harry is a good choice because he is the seeker on the Quidditch team and I could probably play a game with the team. It would be fun to play a sport while flying on a broom! I just hope that he doesn't get detention with Snape while I am with him! Snape is mean.

Sincerely,
